

MARY JONAS DIDN'T TAKE HER OWN LIFE

SAMUEL BUXTON CONFESSES TO THE MURDER.

He Induced Her to Hang Herself in the Superstitious Belief that the Rope Would Strangle Buxton's Wife—Murder Has Been Sentenced to Life Imprisonment.

VIROQUA, Wis., Oct. 30.—S. S. Buxton, arrested for the murder of Miss Mary A. Jonas, who was found hanging in her home, seven miles from here, last Sunday, confessed the crime and had a preliminary hearing, to avoid being lynched, at 12 o'clock Sunday night, pleaded guilty in court yesterday morning, and at night he began to serve his life sentence at Waupun.

In his confession Buxton, who is a married man, says, knowing Miss Jonas was superstitious, he made her believe that he was the messenger of a witch. The woman was led to believe by the witch that Buxton would get a divorce from his wife and marry her. Buxton finally resolved to get rid of her and again used the witchcraft. He made her believe if she would hang herself until apparently dead the spirit of the witch would produce the same effect on his wife with the exception that it would kill his wife. She consented to try that means of killing Mrs. Buxton.

Three weeks ago Buxton hanged the woman to a rafter, but his heart failed, and he let her down without injury. Oct. 21 he told Miss Jonas that when she was hanged it almost killed his wife, and that if they would try it again and he would let her hang longer it would be sure to kill his wife. The woman consented to the trial. The rope was fastened around a rafter and then around the woman's neck, while she stood on a chair. He pushed her off the chair and held her fast until she died.

Before he kicked the chair from under her Buxton had tied the woman's hands behind her back. She had such confidence in him and such faith in the witch that she never wined, but went bravely to her death. Buxton then went down stairs and took from her handbag $20 that he found there. He returned and untied the woman's hands, and soon left the house and went to his own house.

When the body was found the surroundings and position pointed to suicide, but a coroner's jury, decided that death was due to unknown causes.

Daniel Jonas, a brother of the dead woman, arrived in Viroqua Friday in response to a telegram conveying the news of his sister's death. He heard the stories of the neighbors, followed up several clues that seemed to indicate that his sister had not died as appearances indicated that she had, and came to the conclusion that a murder had been committed. Saturday he visited the office of the district attorney, and at the request of the officials swore out a warrant for the arrest of Samuel S. Buxton for the murder of his sister. The officers arrested Buxton, who lives near by, and took him to the home of Miss Jonas, where they endeavored to draw from him a confession. He strenuously denied all connection with the crime, but in talking about Miss Jonas said that when he left her she always took a round piece of paper from her shoe. This led the officers to believe that he was with the woman when she died. A night in the jail weakened Buxton and he broke down and made a full confession.

The conductor who brought in the passenger train from that county brings the same information. He says further that the pursuers have captured the horses of the robbers and have the gang surrounded. Notwithstanding these reports, officials here believe it to be a ruse of friends of the bandits to turn public attention away from other parts. WE MAY RETALIATE THE BARRING BEEF

GERMANY ASKED TO REMOVE THE CATTLE EMBARGO.

If They Do Not, We Can Get Even by Shutting Out All Her Products—Member of the Cabinet Says the Game Is One That Two Can Play At.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—"Retaliation is a game at which two can play. If Germany wants to play it we can keep her pretty busy. And I fancy she will be the first to cry enough."

So said a member of the cabinet to your correspondent yesterday morning. There is no doubt that he expressed not only his own mind, but that of the President as well. The belief in administration circles is that Germany will shortly recede from her position. The interview between Secretary Gresham and the German ambassador on Saturday is said to have been of an emphatic character. At the conclusion of the interview a cable dispatch was sent to Ambassador Runyon at Berlin setting forth this government's views on the subject. The change in the German ministry may cause some delay in presenting the dispatch to the German chancellor, but when it is presented it will, unless people acquainted with its contents are greatly mistaken, be followed by the change in the prohibitory decree, if not by its total abolition.

This government is perfectly willing to have diseased meats and cattle stopped at the port of entry. It is glad to have them stopped. But when it has been proved that our products are not diseased, it will expect to have them admitted on the same footing as those from the most favored nations, or know the reason why. It matters not whether only 4,000 head of cattle or 4,000,000 head are shipped from this country. The principle is the same, and as the value of our exports to Germany last year amounted to nearly $100,000,000 the wisdom of sticking up for the principle is apparent.

There appears to be some misunderstanding as to just what has been shut off by the decree. Secretary Morton told your correspondent yesterday that he thought it referred to live cattle only. Secretary Gresham said he understood that it included live cattle and dressed beef. The correspondent then called at the German embassy. The ambassador took his instructions from his desk and read: "Live cattle and fresh meat," so that Secretary Gresham is doubtless right. The correspondent asked the ambassador if the prohibition would be raised should it be shown that there is no more Texas fever in future shipments. He replied that he thought so. When asked, however, if the popular impression that the prohibition is simply retaliatory is correct, he shrugged his shoulders and remarked:

"That is something about which I know nothing. I get my instructions and I obey them. That is all."

PORTER A DEFAULTER.

Rock Island Auditor $23,000 Short as Secretary of Normal Park.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 30.—The auditor of public accounts has concluded an examination of the affairs of the Normal Park Loan association of Chicago, of which the late F. W. Porter was secretary. Mr. Porter also having been the auditor of the Rock Island railroad. The examination developed the fact that Porter was a defaulter to the extent of some $23,000. This defalcation was admitted by Porter in a letter to the inspector employed by the auditor to make the examination, written the day before his sudden death at the Grand hotel in Cincinnati. The facts in the case have been suppressed until now owing to a belief on the part of the management of the association that the friends and relatives of Porter would make good to the association the amount of his defalcation rather than have the facts brought to the public notice. Negotiations in this direction having failed, however, it is deemed by the auditor only proper that the public should be in possession of the facts. The defalcation will not affect the solvency of the association, as it still has a comfortable surplus remaining after suffering this loss.

PETERSBURG, Oct. 20.—The general condition of the Czar became worse today and in spite of the fact that an analysis of the fluid drawn from the limbs of the czar has had a reassuring result, giving hope the process of absorption may soon begin. Earthquake Was An Awful One.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—A special dispatch from Buenos Ayres says: "A correspondent at La Rioja, capital of the province of the same name, telegraphs that the city has been ruined by last night's earthquake. The churches, schools and public edifices were all thrown down. The people are camping out in the neighborhood. Comparatively few were killed. There was a general rush into the open when the first shock came, at 4:30 o'clock. At times the shocks lasted twenty-six seconds. The scene was horrifying. Women were shrieking and fainting on every hand as the walls came crashing down. Two sisters of mercy were killed and many more are now entombed beneath the ruins. The governor fears that the killed and wounded throughout the province must number at least 2,000, as many of the outlying towns also suffered. It is reported that various parts of the province the ground opened and geysers of boiling water and mud spouted forth. Couriers continue to arrive here with news of the damage in the various departments and towns. The village of Del Arbolon has been completely swallowed up in the huge gaps which opened in the ground. The national government is sending special trains with doctors, tents, food and every kind of assistance as well as laborers to clear away the wreckage. La Prensa has opened a public subscription list, and the town of La Rioja has contributed a large sum of money. It is estimated that at least 20,000 persons are homeless. South of Buenos Ayres only a slight shock was felt. The wave appears to have passed away to seaward near the mouth of the La Plata river."

LOAVES ARE DOUBLED.

New York Bakers to Give Twice as Much Bread for a Nickel.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The unprecedented slump in the price of wheat may bring woe to the farmer and speculator, but the situation is not as gloomy for the consumers of bread, because cheaper wheat is to be followed by cheaper bread. The New York bakers, following the commendable lead of their fellow tradesmen of Washington, have decided to reduce the price of bread to conform to the relative price of wheat. Ever since wheat began to tumble to the lowest price recorded in the history of trading a reduction in the domestic tariff of bread has been looked for, but it was not until last week, when the bakers of Washington knocked off a cent from the price of ordinary bread, that bread-makers in New York and other cities began to consider the matter seriously. The reduction in Washington has compelled the New York bakers to make a similar concession, although they will maintain former prices. The weight of the loaves is to be increased to double the present weight. In Washington a 5-cent loaf of bread is now sold for 4 cents. In New York the 5-cent rate will be retained, but the one-pound loaf sold for that price will give place to a two-pound loaf sold at the same rate.

M'FAIL NOW TELLS OF THE ROSTER JOB

HOW A ROCK COUNTY MAN WAS SWINDLED.

Banker Woodard, of Clinton, Lost $8,000 by the Job—Ex-Editor of Colonel Clark's Paper Says That no Good Citizen Can Vote for the Dishonest Gang.

The chickens of the "roster roster" are coming home to roost. The state administration under whose auspices the whole steal was conceived and executed begin to feel the force of it. Editor W. J. P. McFail who ran the defunct Madison Times which state money founded and state officials owned tells the story just as it is but with reluctance.

"To begin with," said Mr. McFail, let me assure you that not one of sooner had Colonel Clark secured the $8,000 and begun the publication of The Times when the capitol officials notified Mr. Woodard that it would be necessary for him to furnish the state with a new bond, signed by residents of Clinton. This Mr. Woodard did, and then it was that the state deposit of $10,000 was rapidly recalled, and the Clinton banker found he had been outwitted.

"If the details of this transaction are not sufficient to cause a three-card monte shirk to hide for shame I am much mistaken. This is the true story of the way the state funds were juggled, and the disreputable tactics adopted to secure the necessary money to start The Times, and I would like to ask," continued Mr. McFail, "if it is not enough in itself to bury into political oblivion all persons of the administration connected with it? I believe that every fair minded democrat in Wisconsin ought to ask himself is question, 'If I should go to the polls and vote to continue such unprincipled men in power?'"

The method by which Mr. Woodard

my democratic friends in the state or the defendants in the roster case has regretted or has been caused more pain over this unfortunate occurrence than I, myself. It was with great reluctance that I consented so become a party in the roster suit, it was simply a duty that I owed my friends, the men who advanced and lost $15,000 in the contract purchased of this administration, and executed on the part of the state by Governor George W. Peck. In the campaign two years ago, no one, I believe I can truthfully say, worked harder for the success of the democratic ticket than did I as the editor of the Madison Times.

"The Madison Democrat, opposed the administration and the question of starting a democratic organ was first mentioned to me by Col. Clarence L. Clark, who was a neighbor of mine and who held the office of secretary to Gov. Peck. His idea, and a very plausible one, too, was that a thoroughly democratic journal could be made the official newspaper of the state, and this alone, he said, would bring in a revenue of from $8,000 to $10,000 a year.

Clark Not So Much to Blame.

"For a year or more past there has been a concerted effort among prominent democrats, both in Madison and throughout the state, to throw the responsibility for the official crookedness in the roster scandal on the shoulders of Col. Clark, but I want to say right here that for myself I do not believe he is one-half as much to blame as his superiors in the great conspiracy. Without the aid of Gov. Peck, Atty.-Gen. O'Connor, Adj.-Gen. Doe, Senator Bashford and the others of that crowd Col. Clark would never have started The Times or sold the roster contract."

Mr. McFail then related, after a statement as to his being engaged as editor of The Times, the complete details of the manner in which the political shell-wrackers flim-flammed Banker Woodard out of $8,000.

"Mr. Woodard," continued Mr. McFail, "had for some time past been willing to serve the state as lieutenant-governor, which fact was known to Colonel Clark, and probably others connected with the administration. Mr. Woodard was promised, I am told, that if he would loan Colonel Clark $8,000 or $10,000 on his note, his bank would be made a state depository and that amount of money would be kept on deposit with him all the time, so that he would not have to use any of his own fund. As a further inducement Mr. Woodard was assured that he would receive the support of the paper for lieutenant-governor.

Woodard Was Outwitted.

After this bond was executed $10,000 was sent to Mr. Woodard, who in turn loaned Clark $8,000, I believe taking Clark's note and some stock in the Janesville paper as security. No

Republican Speaker Will Talk at Milton Junction—Milton Farmers Hold Their Barley Until After the Election in Hopes That Better Prices and Times Will Come.

MILTON, Oct. 30.—Hon. M. C. Ring, of Neillville, will address the citizens of Milton and vicinity, at P. of H. hall Milton Junction, on Saturday evening, November 3 at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Ring is a polished speaker and will present the truths of republicanism in a convincing manner. The public are cordially invited to come and hear this orator. The "Favorites" and "Freaks No. 2" played a four inning game of ball Friday. Score 10 to 9 in favor of the Freaks. The shipments of grain for last week were seven carloads. Fetherston shipped three cars each of barley and oats, and Osborn one car of barley. The market shows little or no change from a week ago. There is a large quantity of barley yet in farmers' hands but they anticipate better prices after election, if it is generally favorable to republicans and are holding onto the grain. Principal Summers of the Juda school, spent Saturday and Sunday in this village. Mayor Ed. Whaver and wife of Mankato, Minn., spent Sunday with their uncle, W. H. Weaver. A. J. Dunn and wife, who have been spending a week with their parents, Rev. E. M. Dunn and wife, will return to their Minneapolis home this week. Professor Humphrey and wife of Whitewater, were in town Sunday. A quintette from the "Beefsteak Club," composed of Professor A. R. Crandall, Hon. P. M. Greene, Druggist Clarke, Dr. Stillman and Capitalist H. W. Maxson, built a camp fire, ate broiled steak and held an enjoyable symposium at Storrs' Lake, from 6 to 8 p. m. Sunday. At the annual meeting of the Milton branch of the American Bible society held Sunday evening, the following officers were elected: President, W. A. Thompson; secretary, Miss M. B. McEwan; treasurer, Eli Looftboro. D. E. Brown, medical student in the College of Physicians and Surgeons Chicago, spent Saturday and Sunday at home. Ex-Senator Ring, who is to speak at the Junction Saturday evening, November 3, in place of M. G. Jeffris, will fully explode the democratic lies as to Major Upham and the coupon books. He knows all about it, and has been at Marshfield and interviewed the employes of the Upham company.

WHAT AILS MY NERVES?

They Are Almost Driving Me Crazy.

They Won't Let Me Work and They Spoil My Pleasure.

Here is a Way To Have Nerves Like Steel Just Read This.

Thousands of people feel this way. Their nerves are weak and irritable, they pass sleepless nights; waking in the morning, tired and unrefreshed, with bad taste in the mouth, and dull feeling head. They feel nervous, blue and discouraged, often having a sense of anxiety and apprehension, as of some impending danger.

They feel that they have lost their nerve power and much of their energy and ambition. They often declare themselves as "feeling just good for nothing." This was so with Mrs. N. H. Clark, a prominent and well known lady of Moretown, Vt. She writes the following unusually interesting letter:

"For some time I have been fearfully prostrated with nervous weakness. I was continually without strength and unable to do my work. I was completely tired out, and my nerves were so weak I was good for nothing."

"I could not sleep nights I was so weak and nervous, and when I arose in the morning, I was as tired as when I went to bed, and sometimes even more so. I was entirely used up and miserable. I had no appetite and the little food I could eat distressed me awfully."

I had a constant fear and dread that something was going to happen. I also had a cough and bronchitis. I employed doctors and took medicines constantly, but without benefit. At this time a friend who had used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and been cured by it, advised me to try it.

MRS. N. H. CLARK.

"I had not used the first bottle when I could plainly see more good results than from all the other medicines I had ever before taken. The good I derived from this wonderful medicine was marvelous."

"I can sleep well and my nerves are strong and quiet. My appetite is good and I can eat anything without distress. I heartily recommend Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy to everybody, for I believe it to be the best medicine I have ever found, and a great boon to mankind."

You are sick and suffering just remember this: Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is the medicine that cures, and is exactly what you want. There are countless numbers of persons in just this condition. They are not sick with any particular disease but are out of order, have weak nerves and tired bodies. They have lost their snap and energy and work becomes an effort.

You need Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It will cure you. It is purely vegetable and harmless, and is the discovery of Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York city, the most successful special list in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

HOG CHOLERA HERE AND PORK IS CHEAP

ROCK COUNTY SWINE DYING IN DROVES.

T. H. Edden, of the Town of Harmony, Lost Twenty Five Animals, and Has Many More Sick—Farmers Sell Their Herds for Small Prices, Fearing the Scourge.

Hog cholera is raging many sections of Rock county and hogs are dying by scores. Hundreds of hogs have died and the fatality appears to increase from day to day. Farmers are becoming alarmed and are using every known means to check the disease. So far as learned the farmers in the towns of Harmony and Janesville, have suffered so far the severest losses. T. H. Edden of Harmony has lost twenty-five fine fat hogs within a few days, and many more are sick. He expects to lose the entire drove, consisting of about sixty. Mr. Griffy of Janesville has lost a large number, and has many more sick. Other farmers have lost heavily:

"I hear that the disease is spreading all over the county," said Mr. Edden last evening, "but farmers are keeping still about it."

A farmer from the town of Janesville says that some are disposing of their hogs at almost any price, fearing that they will be attacked, and it is also intimated that hogs diseased have been sold on the market. Remedies which heretofore have been found reliable in curing the disease now have no effect.

"I cured my hogs a few years ago," said Mr. Edden. "The same medicine has no effect on them now. I have tried many remedies, but so far nothing appears to take effect."

There are large numbers of hogs now in Rock county, nearly ready for the market and it is apparent that stringent measures should be adopted to stamp out the disease and see that diseased meat is not placed on the market.

A Temple of Health.

Where vigor, good digestion, appetite and sound repose minister to physical comfort, is the body's structure which, however much its foundations have been sapped by ill health, has been restored—re-built, as it were—by the great renovating tonic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Nothing infuses strength, into a debilitated frame like this saving medicine, which in the vigor and regularity it imparts to the system, endows it with the surest defense against disease, and the best guaranty of a long life and hale old age. Worn out men of business, tired mechanics, overworked mill hands and miners broken down by hardship and exposure to malarial, mariners and tourists all declare that it is the best safeguard against the influences of fatigue, bodily or mental, and of climate and temperature. Incomparable for rheumatic, kidney and nervous troubles.

If the Baby Is Cutting Teeth, Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

HE'S AN HEIR.

But Sergeant "Billy" Blair Will Stick to the Force.

It would be difficult to find a happier man on Manhattan island than Police Sergeant "Billy" Blair, who is attached to the city hall station. "Billy," as his companions style him, has fallen heir to a fortune of $50,000, left him by his uncle, Lewis R. Blair, and yet when seen the other evening he was as assiduously delving into the depths of the Police Manual as though nothing unusual had happened.

"Will I leave the department?" remarked the sergeant. "No, sir. Fifty thousand dollars will make no difference in me. I'll remain right here. I'm too fond of my duties and companions to permit such a trifle as $50,000 to change my course of life. By the way, that puts me in mind of something. Say, do you know that my uncle, Lewis, was a son of Robert Blair, of Marlborough, Ulster county, N. Y., a member of General Washington's life guards and the identical soldier who gave Major Andre his last breakfast on earth. Proud of my genealogical tree? Well, I should say so. And if ever you visit the parlor of my humble abode you will find Robert Blair's honorable discharge by George Washington framed and given a prominent place in my collection of valuable paintings.

"How many years have I been on the force? Well, I guess you may say 38. One of the old volunteer fire laddies? Yes, sir, and proud of the distinction. I haven't got the $50,000 yet, for I understand that Surrogate Arnold's decision is to be appealed from. But it will make no difference. Nothing but old age will drive me from the department. What's that? Purchase a racing stud? No sir—but excuse me, I must attend to my duties," and Sergeant Blair proceeded to answer a hurry call on the telephone instrument.

American travel to Europe increases greatly with each succeeding summer. Suicides in Paris average eighteen a day in June and eleven a day in December.

The Recorder attempts to score a point on tin plate, but forgets to state that the new factory, covering seven acres, has been in process of construction for more than a year and has a capacity for 3,000 men instead of 300. The Wilson bill is an enemy to American labor, and every manufacturing center throughout the country is suffering the effects of its baneful influence.

Once a year, at election time, the plutocratic and stall fed democratic editor takes his lips from the government source of nourishment long enough to tell some workingman how he is being "worked." Workingmen need more than gammon to make them vote the democratic ticket this year.

The democratic administration save the tax payers' money. If you don't believe it ask Banker Woodward. They put $8,000 of his cash where he couldn't squander it.

Candidate Zieglar will be soldered upon and the Recorder's blow about his worthy and able opponent is helping greatly to do it.

The crew of the roster roster is now squawking.

We are offering for sale fifty-five overcoats in four different styles, at $6.50 each and long-cut wide-collar ulsters at $5 and $8 each. If we had not bought these coats and ulsters at less than a manufacturer's price we could never sell for that. We want every buyer to visit every other clothing store in the city before buying; compare, and if we cannot show you better goods for less money, then buy elsewhere. A "misfit" in the human family is liable to deal in misfits. No such in our house. T. J. ZIEGLER.

The Largest Not the Best.

The largest store does not always have the best bargains. A shrewd buyer can buy just as cheap if he is in a small place as a large one. We know we buy our shoes just as cheap as any house in the city, and as we have no expensive clerk hire and high rent, we divide the profits with you, thus making our goods away below the fellow's up the street. The prices we name on the eighth are beyond comparison. LLOYD & SON.

57 West Milwaukee St.

Do You Want on the Ground Floor?

If you do here is a chance for you. To-morrow, beginning at 9 o'clock a.m., occurs a sale of white, black and tan y web suspenders made with patent buckles, real silk mohair ends, and with drawer support, and you can buy them of us at 23 cents a pair for to-morrow only. Don't come after them any other day because you can't get them at this price. Buy one pair, and if not satisfied that it is worth as much as you usually pay 50 cents for, bring it back and get your money. T. J. ZIEGLER.

To Us They Return.

It is rather pleasing to us to see some of our customers trying other brands of flour than the Jersey Lily, because it is perhaps a little cheaper in price, consequently in quality. In each and every instance of the kind they have "come back" and brought a friend or two with them. Best flour made. Special price in five sack lots. DUNN BROS.

An Unintentional Error.

In yesterday's issue of the Gazette we unintentionally stated that Zieglar would sell men's natural wool, fleeced underwear for 60 cents a suit, when it should have been 60 cents a garment. Zieglar always does as he advertises and never, to our knowledge, tries to mislead the people. The error was the fault of our proofreader.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that proposals to receive the county funds on deposit for one year from the first day of January 1895, will be received by the county clerk of Rock county at his office in the city of Janesville up to 12 o'clock m. on the 12th day of November 1894.

Proposals shall state the rate of interest the bidder will pay on daily balances, the interest to be computed and credited to the county at the end of each month, and on condition that such deposits and accrued interest shall be held subject to draft and payable at all times on demand.

W. J. MCINTYRE, County Clerk.

EMPEROR CHARLES II.

Accompanied by half the nobility of Austria, went to the Carlsbad Springs for the recovery of his health. Six thousand six hundred horses, so the town records say, were necessary to convey the company to the place.

The virtues of the water is as great at the present day as it was in the time of Charles II., and although the expense attached to a journey thither is not as great now as it was then, we are not all wealthy enough to undertake it. For such the virtue of the Carlsbad Spring is extracted. The Carlsbad Sprudel Salt, obtained by evaporation, containing all the solid constituents of the water, can be obtained at every drug store.

It is the very best remedy for catarrh of the stomach, constipation, liver and kidney troubles, gout, rheumatism, etc. Be sure to obtain the genuine imported article, which must have the signature of "EISNER & MENDELSON Co., Sole Agents, New York," on every package.

The complaint recounts that on many occasions, the plaintiff could not have been the victim of worse treatment from a brute. The case will come on for trial at the November term.

Look over the finest upholstery material ever offered to the trade. I guarantee all the work and prices.

If we were not reliable, one of the greatest railroad systems in the world would not allow us to regulate the time pieces for their employees. When we guarantee a watch you can rest assured that it is just as we say. As you pass by step in and see the large display of watches we have on hand. F. C. COOK & CO.

In Case of Lower Quotations.

We have a list of prices on essels in this issue which we think cannot be beat, quality of the essel considered, but should you happen to meet a jealous competitor and he names a lower price that moment come to us, and we will beat it, even if we have to sell for a nickle apiece. We won't be undersold, but will undersell.

WILSON IS ASTRIDE THE SCRIP FENCE

JANESVILLE ASSEMBLYMAN PLAYS TWO PARTS.

He Helped To Kill as a Legislative Committeeman the Same Anti-Coupon Proposition That He Now Commends as a Portion of the Democratic Platform.

The wolf's head begins to show beneath the Recorder's sheep skin.

That paper has had a good deal to say concerning the Upham coupon books and the democratic platform promises to abolish their use.

Now let the records talk. A bill was introduced in the last assembly (overwhelmingly democratic), the purpose of which was to prohibit the employment of any form of scrip or store orders in payment of wages under payment of heavy fines.

The bill was referred to a committee (democratic) of which John Ringle (democratic) was chairman and A. O. WILSON was a member and it was killed by that committee. No voice was raised in its support by Boss Wall, who was then directing all legislation in person. No word in its favor was said by Boss Wall's organ. Here is the official record of the facts:

The Bill That Was Killed. "In assembly No. 83 A. A bill to amend chapter 474 of the laws of Wisconsin for the year 1889, entitled an act in relation to the payment of wages."

Section 1. Chapter 474 of the laws of 1889 is hereby amended to read as follows: Section 1. All wages or compensation for labor or services in the state of Wisconsin shall be paid weekly or monthly in cash. When paid by the month, the established pay day of each and every person, firm or corporation shall not be later than the tenth day of each and every month.

"Section 2. Any person or corporation doing business in this state by themselves, their agents or attorneys, who neglected or refuse to comply with the provisions of this act shall upon conviction thereof, before a justice of the peace of court of competent jurisdiction, pay a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $50 for each and every offense.

Section 3. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed. "Section 4. This act shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage and publication."

Democrats Killed It.

This bill, the object of which was to do away with all scrip and store orders which were used to a considerable extent in Northern Wisconsin, was introduced in the assembly, February 1, 1893, and referred to the committee on state affairs, which consisted of six democrats and three republicans as follows: John Ringle, chairman; Joseph Dauster, A. O. WILSON, William Schewefel, C. Grimm and A. Von Der Heyden, democrats; J. G. Lambers, H. C. Putnam and R. N. McConcie, republicans. The committee held the bill without action for two months and ten days. Finally at the session of the assembly, April 10, 1893, the committee including A. O. WILSON, editor of the Janesville Recorder killed it.

SIMPLY HAD TO NAME ZINCK.

Democratic Managers Couldn't Do Anything Else, Hence Silence.

The mud machine of the Recorder is turning out blackleg slanders concerning Hon. Fenner Kimball about as fast as the wheel will turn, but as yet they have not even mentioned the name of their candidate. There is a reason for all this. Some time ago the man whom they are now running against Mr. Kimball, got an itching for office. He had labored faithfully for democracy so the managers told him to say nothing but saw wood and they would give him an appointment under the administration. This they found they could not do so he was pacified with the promise of the assembly nomination, the managers figuring all the time that they could get him off the track when the time came. When the time did come, however, the candidate was tired of empty promises and insisted that he should have the nomination, so they had to give it to him. They did not figure that he had any show of election, but as one of them said:

"It was one of those peculiar cases where we couldn't do anything else."

The Recorder did not get his name in the ticket at the head of their editorial page until they were told to, and now while the assail Mr. Kimball in a cowardly and hypocritical manner they say nothing about their candidate's qualifications.

Why? Has he none?

NOW LET THE RECORDER ANSWER

With John W. Hogan as Standard, Bring on Your Figures.

"If Candidate Hogan had voted away $10,000 of the county's money in a year, would the Gazette call it a crime or try to elect him to the assembly?—Recorder.

If Candidate Hogan cannot account for a large sum of money that has passed through his hands "would the Recorder call it a crime or try to elect him sheriff?"

"If it cost Rock county $10,000 a year to prepare a man for the assembly, how much will it cost to keep him a year after he gets there?"—Recorder.

If 't cost the tax payers a goodly sum of money over salary to keep

John W. Hogan as marshal, how much will it cost the county to have him as sheriff?"

PAVER MARTIN IN HARD LUCK

His Tools Were Attached While He Was At Work.

John Martin, the Oshkosh contractor who did the paving on River street this summer and put the blocks down on West Milwaukee street some time ago is having plenty of trouble in the Sawdust City. All his personal property was attached at the instance of the National Union bank, to which Martin had given notes amounting to $1,500. The property included horses, wagons and tools generally used in paving, in which Martin had been engaged for years. When the property was attached Martin was in the midst of tearing up Light street from High to Church streets, preparatory to laying a pavement. Work on the street had just been commenced the previous Monday, and Martin expected to complete the job within a month at the most. The attachment of course interfered with the work on the street much to the disappointment of property owners. Lanterns were placed on each end as warnings, and very little has been done on the street since, which is in a dangerous condition.

Light street is perhaps one of the most travelled in the city, and the public, especially the farmers, are greatly inconvenienced by the condition of the thoroughfare. The property owners along the line of the proposed pavement are complaining, and unless the work is rushed more this week than it has been the past week, they say they will take the matter into their own hands. Martin is not in a position to aid them, and says he can do nothing until he gets his teams and wagons. The curbing has been laid, but aside from this nothing has been done. A large property holder on the street said:

"We are tired of having a muddy and dangerous street in front of our property, and it was to improve the street that he wanted it paved. If Mr. Martin cannot put men and teams enough on the street to complete the work within a reasonable time, then the city ought to re-let the contract."

CALL TO THE HOME ABOVE

Anastasia Wallace.

Miss Anastasia Wallace died at the home of her parents on North Main street last evening, after an illness of eight months, aged twenty-six years. She was the eldest daughter of Joseph Wallace and was born and reared in Janesville and was a dress maker by profession. She had borne her long sickness with christian resignation, always feeling assured that a happier life was in store for her. From childhood she led an exemplary life, the pleasures of the world had no attraction for her, and she lived for God alone. PAVER MARTIN IN HARD LUCK

His Tools Were Attached While He Was At Work.

John Martin, the Oshkosh contractor who did the paving on River street this summer and put the blocks down on West Milwaukee street some time ago is having plenty of trouble in the Sawdust City. All his personal property was attached at the instance of the National Union bank, to which Martin had given notes amounting to $1,500. The property included horses, wagons and tools generally used in paving, in which Martin had been engaged for years. When the property was attached Martin was in the midst of tearing up Light street from High to Church streets, preparatory to laying a pavement. Work on the street had just been commenced the previous Monday, and Martin expected to complete the job within a month at the most. The attachment of course interfered with the work on the street much to the disappointment of property owners. Lanterns were placed on each end as warnings, and very little has been done on the street since, which is in a dangerous condition.

Light street is perhaps one of the most travelled in the city, and the public, especially the farmers, are greatly inconvenienced by the condition of the thoroughfare. The property owners along the line of the proposed pavement are complaining, and unless the work is rushed more this week than it has been the past week, they say they will take the matter into their own hands. Martin is not in a position to aid them, and says he can do nothing until he gets his teams and wagons. The curbing has been laid, but aside from this nothing has been done. A large property holder on the street said:

"We are tired of having a muddy and dangerous street in front of our property, and it was to improve the street that he wanted it paved. If Mr. Martin cannot put men and teams enough on the street to complete the work within a reasonable time, then the city ought to re-let the contract."

Anastasia Wallace.

Miss Anastasia Wallace died at the home of her parents on North Main street last evening, after an illness of eight months, aged twenty-six years. She was the eldest daughter of Joseph Wallace and was born and reared in Janesville and was a dress maker by profession. From childhood she led an exemplary life, the pleasures of the world had no attraction for her, and she lived for God alone. BICYCLE FACTORY FOR $10,000

Business Men's Association Committee Have the Matter in Charge.

Captain W. T. Vankirk, I. C. Brownell and W. F. Carle are now working to establish the bicycle factory in Janesville that was spoken of in The Gazette last night. At the meeting of the Business Men's association held last evening B. W. Veirs, F. C. Clemons and H. J. Winn, all of Chicago who are interested in the plant were present. They have a plant in Chicago consisting of machinery valued at $8,000; patents worth $2,000 and $5,000 in cash. They desire to bring it all to Janesville and manufacture a high grade bicycle. They have contracts for from five hundred to fifteen hundred wheels.

George L. Carrington has offered them a site and factory, an engine and boiler, on condition that they occupy the factory for five years and employ not less than twenty-five men. At the end of five years, under these conditions, he will deed the site to the company.

The Chicago men desire Janesville citizens to take stock in the new enterprise to the amount of $10,000, the Janesville stockholders to be in the majority as to directors and officers.

HOGAN'S ACCOUNT WITH THE PEOPLE

WHAT THE FOUR YEARS' RECORDS SHOW.

Expert Found $666.39 Had Been Turned Over, and the County Records for the Same Time Say That He Received $1,265.77, Which Makes the Total $1,932.16.

Expert Accountant J. C. Card, after a careful examination of the records from April 20, 1886, to April 17, 1894, reports that John W. Hogan is indebted to the city in the sum of $1,026.31.

An examination of the city ledger from April 20, 1882, to April 20, 1886 (the time when Mr. Card commenced his examination) shows that John W. Hogan turned over to the city treasurer the sum of $666.39, as follows:

1882, May to October	$ 40.65
1882, fees, state vs. Carroll	1.00
1883, March 21, April to November	95.29
1883, March 21, April to November	12.84
1883, October to January	52.68
1884, January 21	291.66
1884, January 21	51.19
1885, January 31	31.45
April 16	62.26
December 31	70.00
Total	$666.39

A very careful examination of the county records reveals that John W. Hogan received from the county treasurer during the same time, the following amounts:

1882, County order No. 61	$ 89.73
County order No. 323	140.19
1883, County order, No. 101	12.84
1884, County order No. 70	29.31
County order No. 186, (appeal from 1883)	885.61
1885, County order No. 184	16.77
County order No. 202	91.14
Total	$1,265.77
Expert Card's report of shortage	1026.31
Total	$2,292.08
Amount turned over from 1882 to 1886	666.39
Total shortage not accounted for	$1,625.69

On its face this would seem to leave a balance of $1,625.65 in favor of the city. Aldermen will demand an explanation.

DR. TALMAGE TALKS ON "REFLECTION."

THE LOOKING GLASS AS A SERMON SUBJECT.

If We Could Only See a Reflection of Our Hearts the World Would Indeed be Better—The Truths of Jesus Christ Are Forever Interesting.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 28.—Rev. Dr. Talmage, who has left India and is now on his homeward journey, has selected as the subject of his sermon to-day through the press: "The Looking Glass," his text being Exodus, 38:17: "And he made the laver of brass, and the foot of it was of brass, of the looking glasses of the women assembling."

We often hear about the gospel in John and the gospel in Luke, and the gospel in Matthew; but there is just as surely a gospel of Moses, and a gospel of Jeremiah, and a gospel of David. In other words Christ is as certain to be found in the Old Testament as in the New.

When the Israelites were marching through the wilderness, they carried their church with them. They called it the tabernacle. It was a pitched tent; very costly, very beautiful. The frame work was made of forty-eight boards of acacia wood set in sockets of silver. The curtains of the place were purple, and scarlet, and blue, and fine linen, and were hung with most artistic loops. The candlestick of the tabernacle had shaft, and branch, and bowl of solid gold, and the figures of cherubim that stood there had wings of gold; and there were lamps of gold, and snuffers of gold; so that scepticism has sometimes asked: Where did all that precious material come from? It is not my place to furnish the precious stones, it is only to tell that they were there.

I wish now more especially to speak of the laver that was built in the midst of that ancient tabernacle. It was a great basin from which the priests washed their hands and feet. The water came down from the basin in spouts and passed away after the cleansing. This laver or basin was made out of the looking glasses of the women who had frequented the tabernacle, and who had made these their contribution to the furniture. These looking glasses were not made of glass, but they were brazen. The brass was of a very superior quality, and polished until it reflected easily the features of those who looked into it. So that this laver of looking glasses spoken of in my text did double work; it not only furnished the water in which the priests washed themselves, but it also, on its shining, polished surface, pointed out the spots of pollution on the face which needed ablation. Now, my Christian friends, as everything in that ancient tabernacle was suggestive of religious truth, and for the most part positively symbolical of truth, I shall take that laver of looking glasses spoken of in the text as all suggestive of the gospel, which first shows us our sins as in a mirror, and then washes them away by divine ablation.

Oh, happy day, happy day, When Jesus washed my sins away!

I have to say that this is the only looking glass in which a man can see himself as he is. There are some mirrors that flatter the features, and make you look better than you are. Then there are other mirrors that distort your features, and make you look worse than you are; but I want to tell you that this looking glass of the gospel shows a man just as he is. When the priests entered the ancient tabernacle one glance at the brazen side of this laver showed them their need of cleansing; so this gospel shows the soul its need of divine washing. "All have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." That is one showing. "All we, like sheep, have gone astray." That is another showing. "From the crown of the head to the sole of the foot there is no health in us." That is another showing. The world calls these, defects, imperfections, or eccentricities, or erratic behavior, or "wild oats," or "high living;" but the gospel calls them sin, transgression, filth—the abominable thing that God hates. It was just one glance at that mirror that made Paul cry out, "Oh, wretched man that I am, who shall deliver me from the body of this death?" and that made David cry out, "Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;" and that made Martin Luther cry out, "Oh, my sins, my sins!" I am not talking about bad habits. You and I do not need any bible to tell us that bad habits are wrong, that blasphemy and evil speaking are wrong. But I am talking of a sinful nature, the source of all bad thoughts, as well as of all bad actions. The apostle Paul calls their roll in the first chapter of Romans. They are a regiment of death encamping around every heart, holding it in a tyranny from which nothing but the grace of God can deliver it.

If you could catch a glimpse of your natural heart before God, you would cry out in amazement and alarm. The very first thing this gospel does is to cut down our pride and self-sufficiency. If a man does not feel his lost and ruined condition before God, he does not want any gospel. I think the reason that there are so few conversions in this day is because the tendency of the preaching is to make men believe that they are pretty good anyhow—quite clever, only wanting a little fixing up—a few touches of divine grace, and then you will be all right; instead of proclaiming the broad, deep truth that Payson and Whitefield thundered to a race trembling on the verge of infinite and eternal disaster. "Now," says some one, "can this really be true?" Have we all gone astray? Is there no good in us? In Hampton court I saw a room where the four walls were covered with looking glasses; and it made no difference which way you looked, you saw yourself. And so it is in this gospel of Christ. If you once step within its full precincts, you will find your whole character reflected; every feature of moral deformity, every spot of moral taint. If I understand the word of God, its first announcement is that we are lost. I care not, my brother, how magnificently you may have been born, or what may have been your heritage or ancestry, you are lost by reason of sin. "But," you say, "what is the use of all this—of showing a man's faults when he can't get rid of them?" None! "What was the use of that brazen surface to this laver of looking glasses spoken of in the text, if it only showed the spots on the countenance and the need of washing, and there was nothing to wash with?" Glory be to God, I find that this laver of looking glasses was filled with fresh water every morning, and the priest no sooner looked on its brazen side and saw his need of cleansing, than he washed and was clean—glorious type of the gospel of my Lord Jesus, that first shows a man his sin, and then washes it all away!

I want you to notice that this laver in which the priest washed—the laver of looking glasses—was filled with fresh water every morning. The servants of the tabernacle brought the water in buckets and poured it into this laver. So it is with the gospel of Jesus Christ; it has a fresh salvation every day. It is not a stagnant pool filled with accumulated corruptions. It is living water, which is brought from the eternal rock to wash away the sins of yesterday—of one moment ago. "Oh," says some one, "I was a Christian twenty years ago!" That does not mean anything to me. What are you now? We are not talking, my brother, about pardon ten years ago, but about pardon now—a fresh salvation. Suppose a time of war should come, and I could show the government that I had been loyal to it twelve years ago, would that excuse me from taking an oath of allegiance now? Suppose you ask me about my physical health, and I should say I was well fifteen years ago—that does not say how I am now. The gospel of Jesus Christ comes and demands present allegiance, present fealty, present moral health; and yet how many Christians there are seeking to live entirely in past experience, who seem to have no experience of present mercy and pardon!

When I was on the sea, and there came up a great storm, and officers and crew and passengers all thought we must go down, I began to think of my life insurance, and whether, if I were taken away, my family would be cared for; and then I thought, is the premium paid up? and I said, yes. Then I felt comfortable. Yet there are men who, in religious matters, are looking back to past insurance. They have let it run out, and they have nothing for the present, no hope nor pardon—falling back on the old insurance policy of ten, twenty, thirty years ago. If I want to find out how a friend feels toward me, do I go to the drawer and find some old yellow letters written to me ten or twelve years ago? No! I go to the letter that was stamped day before yesterday in the postoffice, and I find how he feels toward me. It is not in regard to old communications we had with Jesus Christ, it is communications we have now. Are we not in sympathy with him this morning, and is he not in sympathy with us? Do not spend so much of your time in hunting in the wardrobe for the old, worn out shoes of Christian profession. Come this morning and take the glittering robe of Christ's righteousness from the Saviour's hand. You say you were plunged in the fountain of the Saviour's mercy a quarter of a century ago. That is nothing to me; I tell you to wash now in this laver of looking glasses and have your soul made clean.

When our civil war had passed the government of the United States made proclamation of pardon to the common soldiery in the confederate army, but not to the chief soldiers. The gospel of Christ does not act in that way. It says pardon for all, but especially for the chief sinners. I do not now think of a single passage that says a small sinner may be saved, but I do think of passages that say a great sinner may be saved. If there be sins only faintly hued, just a little tinged, so faintly colored that you can hardly see them, there is no special pardon promised in the bible for those sins; but if they be glaring, red like crimson, then they shall be as snow. Now, my brother, I do not state this to put a premium upon great iniquity. I merely say this to encourage that man, whoever he is, who feels he is so far gone from God there is no mercy for him. I want to tell him there is a good chance. Why, Paul was a murderer; he assisted at the execution of Stephen; and yet Paul was saved. Thedying thief did everything bad. The dying thief was saved. Richard Baxter swore dreadfully; but the grace of God met him and Richard Baxter was saved. It is a vast laver. Go and tell everybody to come and wash in it. Let them come up from the penitentiaries and wash away their crimes. Let them come up from the almshouses and wash away their poverty. Let them come up from their graves and wash away their death. If there be any one so worn out in sin that he can not get up to the laver, you will take hold of his hand and put your arms around him; and I will take hold of his feet, and we will plunge him in this glorious Bethesda, the vast laver of God's mercy and salvation. In Solomon's temple there were ten lavers and one molten sea—this great reservoir in the midst of the temple filled with water—these lavers and this molten sea adorned with figures of palm branch, and oxen, and lions, and cherubim. This fountain of God's mercy is a vaster molten sea than that. It is adorned not with palm branches, but with the wood of the cross; not with cherubim, but with the wings of the Holy Ghost; and around its great rim all the race may come and wash in the molten sea. I was reading the other day of Alexander the Great, who, when he was very thirsty and standing at the head of his army, had brought to him a cup of water. He looked off upon his host and said, "I can not drink this, my men are all thirsty;" and he dashed it to the ground. Blessed be God! there is enough water for all the host—enough for captains and host, "Whosoever will may come and take of the water of life freely"—a laver broad as the earth, high as the heavens, and deep as hell.

An artist in his dreams saw such a splendid dream of the transfiguration of Christ that he awoke and seized his pencil, and said, "Let me paint this and die." Oh, I have seen the glories of Christ! I have beheld something of the beauty of that great sacrifice on Calvary, and I have sometimes felt I would be willing to give anything if I might just sketch before you the wonders of that sacrifice. I would like to do it while I live, and I would like to do it when I die. "Let me paint this and die!" He comes along weary and worn, his face wet with tears, his brow crimson with blood, and he lies down on Calvary for you. No, I mistake. Nothing was as comfortable as that. A stone on Calvary would have made a soft pillow for the dying head of Christ. Nothing so comfortable as that. He does not lie down to die; he stands up to die; his spiked hands outspread as if to embrace a world. Oh, what a hard end for those feet that had traveled all over Judea on ministries of mercy! What a hard end for those hands that had wiped away tears and bound up broken hearts! Very hard, oh dying Lamb of God! and yet there are those who know it and who do not love thee. They say, "What is all that to me? What if he does weep, and groan, and die? I don't want him." Lord Jesus Christ, they will not help thee down from the cross! The soldiers will come and tear thee down from the cross, and put their arms around thee and lower thee into the tomb; but they will not help. They see nothing to move them. Oh dying Christ! turn on them thine eyes of affection now, and see if they will not change their minds!

Oh, my dear friends, I wish I could coax you to accept this gospel. If you could just take one look into this laver of looking glasses spoken of in the text, you would begin now spiritual ablation. The love of Christ—I dare not, toward the close of my sermon, begin to tell about it. The love of Christ! Do not talk to me about a mountain; it is higher than that. Do not talk to me about a sea; it is deeper than that.

And that is all for you! Oh, can you not love him? Come around this laver, old and young. It is so burnished you can see your sins; and so deep you can wash them all away. Oh, mourner, here bathe your bruised soul; and sick one, here cool your hot temples in this laver. Peace! Do not cry any more, dear soul! Pardon for all thy sins, comfort for all thy afflictions. The black cloud that hung thundering over Sinai has floated above Calvary, and burst into the shower of a Saviour's tears.

Who Made This Neat Puzzle?

We should like to know the name of the author of the following puzzle and anagram:

A — old woman with — intent Put on her — and to market went. " — " said she, "give me, I pray, The wherewithal to — this day." Each of the blanks is to be filled with a word of four letters and the same letters occur in each of the five different words. These words are consecutively, "file," "evil," "veil," "Levi" and "live."

Presumption.

Thomas Sheridan, the father of Lady Dufferin, once displeased his father, who, remonstrating with him, exclaimed: "Why, Tom, my father would never have permitted me to do such a thing!" "Sir," said his son, in a tone of the greatest indignation, "do you presume to compare your father to my father?"

Tablet for the Tea Pot.

A chemical addition to the tea table is the patent Tanocoe, or tea toning tablet, a careful preparation of gelatine and alkaline salts, which, when added to an infusion of tea as directed, dissolves rapidly and combines with and dissolves the tannin contained in the tea, thus minimizing largely, if not entirely, the chances of that dyspepsia which is one of the worst effects of over indulgence in tea drinking. This is brought out in London, properly, for the use of the greatest tea drinking country in the world.

Vicarious Revenge.

He—I don't see why your father should object so strenuously to our marriage. He didn't have any more money than I have now when he was a young man himself, I'm told.

She—I know it. But he says now that it does him good to make some other young man feel the way he felt once when the rich father of the first girl he ever loved threw him out of doors.—Somerville Journal.

Too Much Education.

Sympathizing Clergyman (to convict)—How did you happen to get here? You seem to be an intelligent man.

Convict—That is just the trouble. I followed good advice.

Sympathizing Clergyman—Good advice!

Convict—Yes. That what reads: "The Lord helps those that help themselves."—Brooklyn Life.

Between Two Fires.

Agent—What was the matter with your last place?

Domestic—The couple had only been married a month, and I couldn't stand the love-making.

Agent—Well, here's a chance in a house where the couple have been married ten years.

Domestic—That's too long, I like quiet and peace.—Tit-Bits.

No Wonder.

"How on earth did Hunker get out of his engagement with Miss Elder after he fell in love with Miss Scaddis?" said Taddells to Gazzam.

"It was done by a judicious selection of a birthday present."

"What did he send her?"

"He sent her a book entitled 'How to Grow Old Gracefully,' and she sent his letters and ring back immediately."—Judge.

A Sure Remedy.

Adams—So you have sworn off from using tobacco.

Brown—Yes; I suffered a good deal during the first week, but after that I felt all right.

"What did you take to allay the craving for tobacco?"

"I took to smoking again. That allayed the craving right off."—Alex Sweet, in Texas Siftings.

Doubtful, But—

Young Tutter—Do you think your mother, Miss Clara, would let you go to the theater with me without a chaperone?

Miss Pinkerly (doubtfully)—I don't know, Mr. Tutter. She has often said she wouldn't like me to go with any young gentleman I wasn't engaged to.—Life.

Only Waiting.

Together they were looking over the paper.

"Oh, how funny," said she.

"What is it?" he asked.

"Why, here's an advertisement that says: 'No reasonable offers refused.'"

"What's so odd about that?"

"Nothing, nothing," she replied, trying to blush. "Only those are my sentiments."—Boston Home Journal.

Disgraced the Hooghligan.

"Phwat," Mr. Hooghligan, "is the matty wid yer head?"

"Mickey Dolan knocked me down wid a half brick," responded his son.

"Yez how disgraced th' family. It is the worst to do that a Hooghligan was iver knocked down wid less than a whole wan."—Indianapolis Journal.

Thought It Was a Savings Bank.

Mamma—What are you shaking the life out of that poor cat for?

Willie—I heard pa say that the kittie had twenty dollars in her last night.

I was only trying to shake some of it out.—N. Y. World.

In Society.

Mrs. Innit—Are you going to the reception to night?

Mrs. New—Yes.

Mrs. Innit—Who are you going with?

Mrs. New—With my husband.

Mrs. Innit—Aren't you afraid of getting talked about?—Judge.

Wide of the Mark.

If, as is said, it's woman's aim

To purify the state,

She'd better bull-eye something else—

She can never shoot straight. —Puck.

CONTRACT RATES.

Social Saunders—How much for a hair-cut and shave?

Barber—Fifty cents an hour.—Judge.

A Banger to Be Avoided.

Maudie—Why don't you definitely refuse his proposal if he's so importunate?

Genevieve—Because I'm afraid he might think I meant it.—Chicago Record.

Warning to MOTHERS.

Many internal remedies are being skillfully and glibly advertised, professing to shorten Labor, Lessen Pains of Childbirth, etc., and with wonderful inconsistency to regulate menstruation. Common sense should teach a woman that a preparation adapted for MENSTRUAL DISORDERS will not prepare the system for Childbirth; on the contrary, external remedies at this time may imperil her life. We earnestly say BEWARE of all such; they cannot, at this critical period, do any possible good, and their use may prove fatal. It is only by persistent EXTERNAL treatment, while relaxing and softening all the parts, that the hour of Childbirth is robbed of its terror; and no remedy on earth does this but "MOTTIE'S FRIEND." LONG STRING of diseases and derangements have their origin in torpor of the liver. Deranged appetite, constipation, headache, sour stomach, gassy belchings, indigestion, or dyspepsia, are due to sluggish liver.

MR. JOHN A. DE-BERRY, U. S. Inspector of Immigration at Buffalo, N. Y., writes as follows:

"From early childhood I suffered from a sluggish liver. Doctors' prescriptions and patent medicines afforded only temporary relief. I tried Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, taking three at night and two after dinner every day for two weeks and then one 'Pellet' every day for two months. I have in six months increased in solid flesh, twenty-six pounds. I am in better health than I have been since childhood. Drowsiness and unpleasant feelings after meals have completely disappeared. Respectfully yours,

John A. DeBerry

Ely's Cream Balm is specially adapted as a remedy for catarrh which is aggravated by alkaline dust and dry winds.—W. A. Hover, Druggist, Denver.

My catarrh was very bad. For thirty years I have been troubled with it—have tried a number of remedies without relief. A druggist advised Ely's Cream Balm. I have used only one bottle and I can say I feel like a new man. I make this voluntary statement that others may know of the balm. J. W. Mathewson (Lawyer), Pawtucket, R. I.

FLYING FISH.

Bombarded a Ship From the Big Overhanging Waves.

"My experience in midocean last year with swarms of flying fish is one of the most pleasing incidents that ever took place in any of my ocean voyages," said Samuel W. Young. "I was on a voyage from San Francisco to Hong Kong, China, on board the magnificent steamer Belgic. The trip across the continent to Frisco pretty well tired me out and by the time we were out of the Golden Gate I was overcome by the god of the sea. The voyage for a week was very monotonous. When midocean was reached we encountered the aftermath of a typhoon that had evidently passed only a day or two before. The sea was very rough and great swells like mountains arose and receded, causing our great ship to sway to and fro, almost to an angle of forty-five degrees. At first we were frightened, but as it kept up for three days and nights we got used to it.

"During this mighty rocking swarms of flying fish could be seen to leave the mountains of water as they were rolled up. The fish would fly across the valley of water and enter the next mountain as it followed the other. They seemed determined on a straight course, despite the ragings of a great tide. Once as the steamer mounted one of the great swells and turned fearfully to one side a swarm of these fish, in attempting one of these freaks, flew right into the ship on the lower deck. What a feast it was to the passengers! Every passenger claimed one of the poor captives. They were not larger than an ordinary herring, and were perfectly shaped, only they had two wings so well formed that it was a matter of taste or convenience to them whether they would fly or swim. I secured the wings of the one I got and pressed them in a book, which has been a great curiosity to those who never saw a real flying fish, and to carry out the test of the merits of the sea sport had the steward to serve the fish for my dinner that afternoon, which was a very delicious dish."

LINCOLN'S VIEW OF THE MOON.

Couldn't Understand Why the Moon Looked Upside Down.

From 1862 to 1866 Professor Asaph Hall worked on the nine-and-a-half-inch equatorial at the naval observatory under James Ferguson, making observations and reducing his work. One night, while he was working alone in the dome, the trap door by which it was entered from below opened and a tall, thin figure, crowned by a stovepipe hat, arose in the darkness. It turned out to be President Lincoln. He had come up from the White house with Secretary Stanton. He wanted to take a look at the heavens through the telescope. Professor Hall showed him the various objects of interest, and finally turned the telescope on the half moon. The president looked at it a little while and went away. A few nights later the trapdoor opened again, and the same figure appeared. He told Professor Hall that after leaving the observatory he had looked at the moon, and it was wrong side up as he had seen it through the telescope. He was puzzled and wanted to know the cause, so he had walked up from the White house alone. Professor Hall explained to him how the lens of a telescope gives an inverted image, and President Lincoln went away satisfied.

Nicety of Touch.

It is a common opinion that machinery works with an exactness and steadiness of movement not to be acquired by a laborer's hand. This is not really true. The workman can suit his stroke to the needs of the case as no machine can do, and this is proved in the trimming of roofing-slates. The splitting process is performed with great nicety by means of chisels, but the shaping is more remarkable, and cannot be properly executed by any who have not been trained to it from youth. The workman sits on a stool with a pad on one

THE KIND-HEARTED MAN.

He Was Deluded by His Sympathy for Beauty in Distress.

A Chicago man had occasion to go to the depot to meet his wife, who had been out in the country for a time. When he got to the station he found that his train was a half an hour late, and he bought a paper and sat down on one of the benches.

Not long after he had seated himself a rather pretty girl, who wore a pink waist and had nice red cheeks and clear blue eyes, and who looked to be not over 17, came and sat down next to him. The man who was waiting for his wife took a casual look at the girl and went back to his paper.

Pretty soon another pretty young girl who also wore a pink waist and had blue eyes and a fresh complexion and all that sort of thing came along and stopped in front of the first girl. The second pretty girl looked as if she wanted to cry. She said, with tremulous voice: "Why, Nettie, what do you think? The fare's a dollar."

"A what?" gasped Nettie. "A dollar, and she told us it was only fifty cents, and I haven't got enough to get the tickets, and, oh dear, I don't know what we will do."

She sank down beside Nettie and the two looked at the tiled floor with very solemn faces. Presently Nettie looked up and said: "I'll take a walk around the room. Perhaps there is somebody here I know." She made the tour of the room and came back with her face gloomier than before. "No body here I ever saw before," she said, brokenly. The other girl sprang to her feet. "I'm going to tell the ticket-man just how it is," she said. "Perhaps he will take what we've got and let us send him the rest." She came back with tears in her eyes. "He won't," she said, sadly.

The man who was waiting for his wife heard all of this. His heart was touched. So he leaned over and said: "I beg pardon, but, ladies, I—that is—will you allow me to help you in your hour of trouble?"

The pretty young girls started and looked at the man with frightened airs. The man hastened to reassure them that his intentions were honorable, and, after many protests and arranging for repayment and exchange of names and all that, he gave the pretty girls $1.15 and they thanked him prettily and went to get their train.

It so happened that the man's wife did not come on that train and he went down to another train in the evening. While he was sitting on a bench waiting for the train he got to thinking of his afternoon experience, and concluded that he had done a right worthy act. As he was in the midst of this train of thought a pretty girl in a pink waist sat down beside him. Pretty soon another girl, looking all woebegone, came along and said: "Why, Nettie, what shall we do? The fare's a dollar."

The man who was waiting for his wife got up and walked slowly to the door. He had seen a great light. They were the same girls.

ELECTION NOTICE.

OFFICE OF COUNTY CLERK
JANESVILLE, OCTOBER 24, 1894.
To the electors of Rock county:

Notice is hereby given that a general election is to be held in the several towns, wards and election precincts in the county of Rock, on the sixth day of November, 1894, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to this office, and the questions submitted to a vote, are given opposite the name of the office and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its appropriate column below.

INFORMATION TO VOTERS.

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters: A voter upon entering the polling place, and giving his name and residence, will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk, which must have endorsed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other can be used. Upon receiving his ballot, voter must retire, alone to a booth or compartment, and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. The voter, if he wishes to vote for all the candidates nominated by any party, should make a cross mark, X, under the party designation printed at the top of the ballot in the square made for that purpose. A ballot so marked, and having no other mark, will be counted for all of the candidates of that party in the column underneath, unless the names of some of the candidates of the party have been erased, and will be counted for all names written in lieu of one erased or pasted over a printed name. If the voter wishes to vote for some of the candidates of different political parties, he should erase the names of the candidates he does not desire to vote for, and make a cross mark, X, after the name of each candidate he does desire to vote for. If he wishes to vote for a person for a certain office whose name is not on the ballot, he must write the name in the blank space under the printed name of the candidate for the office and make a cross, X, in the square at the right of it. The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled, it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum, to assist the voter in marking his ballot, can be taken into the booth, and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter. After it is marked, it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed endorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box, and pass out of the voting place. A voter who declares to the presiding officer, that he is unable to read or that he is unable of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of one or two election officers, in marking same, to be chosen by the voter. The presiding officer may administer an oath, in his discretion, as to such person's disability. The party designations and candidates for the different offices are as follows:

A Short Horse

Is Quickly Curried!

And as we are in the currying business we will proceed to comb him. We buy clothing at least 15 to 25 per cent. cheaper than any other house in the city. We guarantee to sell it likewise.

55 Overcoats at $6.50 each.

These Overcoats are four different styles, black Beavers, black Kerseys, gray mixed Cassimeres and brown mixed Cassimeres. We bought them in Chicago last week for $5.50 each, spot cash. The Beavers actually cost $8.00 each to manufacture; Kerseys and Cassimeres, $7.65 each to manufacture. The man was short—we bought—will make $1.00 on each. All latest styles and cut.

$6.50 For a Fine Overcoat.

We also bought a lot of Long Cut, wide collar Ulsters, made up in wool mixed Cassimere, very nice and warm.

$5⁰⁰ buys one.

Also a lot of Cassimere Ulsters, double breasted, half lined with same kind of goods, black lining, heavily quilted.

$7⁰⁰ buys one.

There are nine other places in the city you can buy clothing, go to all of them, then come to us and we will discount any price they name 25 per cent.
